FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CUSTOMS STAFF ASSOCIATION CONGRATULATES THE NEW MINISTER OF FINANCE FOR GHANA

The leadership of the Customs Staff Association (CSA) extends heartfelt congratulations to Hon. Cassiel Ato Baah Forson, Ph.D on his appointment, parliamentary approval and subsequent swearing into office as the Minister of Finance for our beloved country. This pivotal role is crucial to steering the nation towards economic stability and growth, and we are confident that your leadership will inspire positive change.

As the Customs Staff Association, we recognize the vital role that effective fiscal policy plays in enhancing revenue generation and ensuring the smooth operation of trade, customs processes and procedures. We look forward to collaborating with your office to promote policies that strengthen our economy while facilitating efficient customs operations.

Your extensive experience and commitment to public service make you an excellent choice for this important position. We believe your vision and strategic initiatives will foster a more prosperous future for all Ghanaians.

We are eager to support your efforts in addressing the financial challenges facing our country and enhancing the integrity of our customs systems. Together, we can work towards sustainable development that benefits every citizen.

Once again, congratulations on your well-deserved appointment. We wish you success in your new role and look forward to your leadership in shaping the financial landscape of Ghana.
