

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Domfeh Wins GJA Ashanti Chairmanship Rerun

Mr Kofi Adu Domfeh, a Senior News Editor of the Multimedia Group, in an election rerun on Friday August 22, 2025, secured 20 votes to win the Ashanti Regional chairmanship race of the Ghana Journalists Association (GJA).

His contender, Ms Georgina Ama Ankomah, a Manager at the Ghana Broadcasting Corporation, had 11 votes.

The rerun follows an order by the Election Dispute Adjudication Committee (EDAC) of the GJA after adjudicating a petition filed against the results of the June 30, 2025 regional election.

Ms Ankomah lost by a single vote in that race: 16 -15.

A total of 31 votes were cast, including three by proxy, in today's election, reflecting a 100 per cent turnout.

The results were declared by a Presiding Officer of the Electoral Commission, E.T. Odonkor.

The Elections Committee commended all the stakeholders for their contribution towards ensuring a free and fair democratic election to reflect the will of the members.

It urged the leadership and members of the Ashanti Regional GJA to work in unity to build a vibrant and an all-inclusive union.
