PROGRESSIVE PEOPLE'S PARTY MOURNS THE LOSS OF EIGHT DISTINGUISHED GHANAIS

The Progressive People's Party (PPP) expresses its deepest sorrow following the tragic deaths of eight distinguished Ghanaians who lost their lives in service to the nation.

The fallen include senior government officials, party leaders, and members of the Ghana Armed Forces. They are:

1. Dr. Edward Omane Boamah – Minister for Defence
2. Dr. Ibrahim Murtala Mohammed – Minister for Environment, Science and Technology
3. Alhaji Muniru Mohammed – Acting Deputy National Security Coordinator and former Minister for Food and Agriculture
4. Samuel Sarpong – Vice-Chairman, National Democratic Congress (NDC)
5. Samuel Aboagye – Former Parliamentary Candidate
6. Peter Baafemi Anala – Squadron Leader
7. Manaen Twum Ampadu – Flying Officer
8. Ernest Addo – Sergeant

The Progressive People's Party conveys its heartfelt condolences to the bereaved families, His Excellency the President of the Republic, the National Democratic Congress, and the Ghana Armed Forces. This is a moment of deep national pain, and we stand in solemn solidarity with all those affected.

These were not just names or titles. These were sons of our nation — men who gave their lives in the line of duty and in service to Ghana. Their dedication, courage, and patriotism must never be forgotten.

The Party calls on all Ghanaians to unite in grief and reflection, and to honour the memory of the fallen by recommitting ourselves to national peace, security, and unity.

May their souls rest in perfect peace.

May their families find comfort in the collective embrace of a grateful nation.

Signed,
Nana Ofori Owusu
National Chairman
