PRESS RELEASE

NDC DELEGATION TO ATTEND LABOUR CONFERENCE IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

The National Democratic Congress (NDC) wishes to inform the public and its cherished members that a four-member delegation, led by the General Secretary of the Party, Hon. Fifi Fiavi Kwetey, will attend the 2025 Labour Conference in the United Kingdom.

The delegation comprises:

- Hon. Fifi Fiavi Kwetey - General Secretary (Leader of Delegation)
- Hon. Barbara Serwaah Asamoah - Deputy General Secretary
- Mr. Godwin Ako Gunn - National Deputy Communications Officer
- Dr. Karl Arhin - Deputy Director, International Relations

The delegation departs Accra on Friday, 26th September 2025, and is expected to return on Friday, 3rd October 2025.

In the absence of the General Secretary, the Deputy General Secretary (Operations), Mr. Mustapha Gbande, will assume responsibility for the day-to-day administration of the Party.

The NDC remains committed to strengthening international partnerships and solidarity with progressive parties across the globe in advancing shared ideals of social justice, equality, and inclusive development.

Issued in Accra, this 25th day of September 2025
