

NEW PATRIOTIC PARTY

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF ELDERS

September 15, 2025

PRESS RELEASE

Constitution of an Ad Hoc Committee to Oversee Campaign Conduct of Aspiring Presidential Candidates, Teams and their Followers

The National Council of Elders of the New Patriotic Party, following its engagement with the aspiring Presidential Candidates on Thursday, September 11, 2025, has constituted an Ad Hoc Committee to oversee and safeguard the integrity of the campaign process ahead of the Party's Presidential Primaries scheduled for January 31, 2026.

The Committee has been tasked to:

1. Monitor the comments, actions, and conduct of all aspirants and their followers during the campaign period.
2. Receive and review petitions from aspirants concerning utterances, hate speech, insults, and abusive language directed at them.
3. Recommend appropriate measures and other sanctions, including initiating disciplinary action where necessary, to preserve the dignity, unity, and image of the Party.

This mechanism is intended to provide a fair, structured, and transparent process to address concerns and ensure a decorous campaign atmosphere in line with the values and traditions of the New Patriotic Party.

The membership of the Committee is as follows:

- | | |
|------------------------------|-----------|
| 1. Ing. Dr. Kwasi Abeasi - | Chairman |
| 2. Dr. Alex Glover-Quartey - | Member |
| 3. Mr. Ato Hamilton - | Member |
| 4. Mr. Kwadwo Afari - | Member |
| 5. Mr. Mark Opoku - | Secretary |

The Council of Elders calls on all aspirants, their campaign teams, and supporters to cooperate fully with the Committee in the discharge of its mandate. The Party remains committed to conducting a peaceful, respectful, and dignified primary process that strengthens our unity and readiness for the national elections.
