PRESS RELEASE

POLICE INVESTIGATE MURDER AND ROBBERY AT ABESIM.

1. The Bono Regional Police Command has commenced investigations into a robbery and murder incident that occurred at Frimps filling station Abesim in the Sunyani East Municipality of the Bono Region.
2. The incident, which took place on 6th October 2025, resulted in the death of a security man identified as Akwasi Addai, believed to be in his late sixties.
3. Preliminary investigations revealed that the deceased was found on the porch near a shop dead with head injuries.
4. Further investigations established that the robbers broke into the filling station and stole money from an office used for the sale of electricity power and mobile money transactions. They also ransacked the manager's office and attempted to force open a safe.
5. A crime scene management team visited the location and recovered an axe and a club, both stained with blood.
6. The body of the deceased has been conveyed to the Sunyani Teaching Hospital mortuary for preservation and autopsy. The Bono Regional Police Command assures the public that efforts are ongoing to arrest the perpetrators and bring them to justice.

Signed
