FROM THE AUDITOR-GENERAL

1. The Minister for Finance submitted to the Auditor-General outstanding Commitments, Claims and Bank Transfer Advices (BTAs) as at 31st December, 2024 for audit to ascertain the legitimacy of such claims and BTAs before committing to pay them.

2. The claims and BTAs were for work done or services provided on various projects undertaken throughout the country by Ministries, Departments, and Agencies.

3. The Auditor-General in conjunction with PwC and EY carried out the audit from May to October 2025 by engaging the MDAs, Contractors, and Suppliers where appropriate to verify and validate the claims.

4. The details presented herewith are claims, BTAs, and Commitments which are either rejected or pending to be justified before payment.

5. This publication grants you, the opportunity to contest or query the details published by submitting justifications (including all relevant documentation) through the implementing Ministries, Departments and Agencies to the Ghana Audit Service for final validation.

6. The window for this opportunity will run till 7th November 2025, after which any arrears, commitments rejected or pending validations shall be treated as permanently expunged from the list of Government arrears and commitment stock.

Signed.

Johnson Akuamoah Asiedu

(Auditor-General)
