PRESS STATEMENT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STATEMENT ON MY RETURN TO THE CAMP OF H.E. DR. MAHAMUDU BAWUMIA

I wish to formally inform the general public, party faithful, and all well-wishers of my decision to return to the camp of His Excellency, the former Vice President of the Republic of Ghana, Dr. Mahamudu Bawumia. This decision has been taken after deep personal reflection and sincere consultation. I wish to state clearly that I bear no grudge whatsoever against Hon. Bryan Acheampong. He remains a fine gentleman, a credible leader, and a man whose future in national leadership remains bright. My association with him was built on mutual respect, and that respect endures.

However, my heart continues to yearn for the political home where I once belonged. I am convinced, beyond doubt, that Dr. Mahamudu Bawumia represents the vision, discipline, and forward-looking leadership that Ghana needs at this critical stage of our democratic journey. Returning to his camp is therefore a decision of conviction, conscience, and consistency.

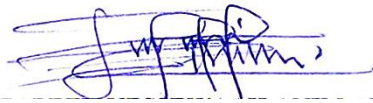

I also wish to use this opportunity to render an unreserved apology to His Excellency Dr. Mahamudu Bawumia. Although I never issued any unpalatable or derogatory statement against him, I acknowledge that my public support for Hon. Bryan Acheampong may have inadvertently drawn a considerable number of people away from the DMB camp. This was never my intention, and I regret any inconvenience or misunderstanding my actions may have caused.

Accordingly, I humbly entreat all supporters, associates, and sympathizers who left the DMB camp on my account to return home, just as I have done. Our collective strength lies in unity, loyalty, and a shared belief in credible leadership.

On the matter of credibility, I have always stood for integrity, consistency, and principled politics. My decision today is not driven by opportunism but by honesty and faithfulness to my long-held beliefs. I believe leaders must have the courage to correct their paths when conscience demands it, and this return reflects my commitment to transparent and credible political engagement.

I remain committed to working tirelessly with all stakeholders to advance the cause, vision, and leadership of Dr. Mahamudu Bawumia for the greater good of our party and our nation.

Thank you, and may the NPP continue to prosper.
