FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HO TEACHING HOSPITAL ASSURES 24/7 QUALITY CARE DURING EASTER FESTIVITIES

The Ho Teaching Hospital (HTH) extends warm Easter greetings to its staff, clients, patients, and the public, and reaffirms its unwavering commitment to the delivery of continuous, high-quality healthcare services throughout the festive season.

Management wishes to assure the public that the Hospital will maintain uninterrupted 24-hour services across all critical service points, including the Family Health Centre (OPD), Emergency Units, and essential support services such as laboratory and diagnostic imaging.

Easter, a season that symbolizes hope, renewal, sacrifice, and the triumph of life over adversity, reflects the core values that underpin HTH's mission of delivering compassionate, safe, and patient-centred care at all times.

The Hospital's Management commends all staff for their exceptional professionalism, resilience, and dedication. Their unwavering commitment continues to position Ho Teaching Hospital as a trusted centre of excellence in quality and safe healthcare delivery.

We also express our sincere appreciation to our clients, patients, and their families for their continued trust and confidence in our services. This trust inspires our continuous pursuit of excellence and innovation in healthcare delivery.

HTH remains steadfast in its commitment to providing quality, safe, and patient-centred care, ensuring that every individual who seeks care is treated with dignity, respect, and compassion. Our clinical and support teams are on standby to deliver timely, efficient, and comprehensive services throughout the Easter period.

The public is encouraged to prioritize their health and safety during the festivities and to look out for one another.

Ho Teaching Hospital wishes everyone a joyful, peaceful, and healthy Easter celebration.
