NEW PATRIOTIC PARTY (NPP) & ANOTHER

ORDER OF INTERIM INJUNCTION

H/L JUSTICE SAMUEL BRIGHT
ACQUAH
JUSTICE OF THE HIGH COURT

BY COURT:

UPON READING the affidavit of Konlan Yennuyiab of House No. A11, Najong No. 1 in the North East Region of Ghana, filed on 7th May, 2026 in support of motion ex-parte for an order for interim injunction.

AND UPON HEARING the submission of Solomon Biitian Damtar Esq., the learned Counsel for and on behalf of the Plaintiffs/Applicants herein.

THE COURT HAVING PERUSED the documents before it in relation to the motion ex-parte to restrain the Defendants from conducting the election purported to be from 10th May, to 15th May, 2026 and also having listened to the Counsel for the Plaintiffs/Applicants the court is convinced that;

1. Plaintiffs/Applicants have capacity to file such a motion because they are members of the 1st Defendant in good standing.
2. Defendants breached some portions of their own rules in exhibit A.
3. On the face of the record, there was a breach of natural justice.

The court in order to prevent irreparable, irreversible or irredeemable damage on the Plaintiffs/Applicants, and also not to make the court ruling or judgment nugatory, moot or redundant, the court therefore grants the current motion ex-parte and therefore make these subsequent orders.

THE COURT RESTRAINS the Defendants by themselves, their agents, assigns, privies or any other person who takes authority directly from the Defendants from conducting the polling station elections in the Bunkpurugu Constituency.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND SEAL OF
THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE, NALERIGU
THIS 8TH DAY OF MAY, 2026.
