PRESS RELEASE
THE MEDIA

POLICE COMMENCE INVESTIGATION INTO SHOOTING INCIDENT AT SAYERANO; EIGHT OFFICERS INTERDICTED

1. The Western North Regional Police Command has restored calm and has commenced investigations into a shooting incident at Sayerano in the Juaboso District of the Western North Region which resulted in the death of two people.
2. Preliminary investigation revealed that, today, 7th July, 2026, there was a confrontation between some members of the Sayerano community and a police patrol team. During the incident, three people sustained gunshot wounds which resulted in the death of two of them, while three are receiving treatment at the Asafo Roman Catholic Hospital.
3. All eight (8) officers involved have since been interdicted and the Inspector-General of Police has directed the Police Professional Standards Bureau (PPSB) to conduct a full investigation into the circumstances surrounding the incident.
4. The Command is grateful to the chiefs, community leaders and all other stakeholders who continue to work together with the Police to restore calm.
5. The Western North Regional Command assures the public of a thorough investigation into the incident, and any further development will be communicated.
